

At such a difficult time, we will ensure that your catering requirements are met with the minimum of fuss and the highest standard of professionalism. Funerals are always short notice; be assured that we will organise your reception, whatever the number attending, leaving you to focus on family matters.

The amount of catering varies greatly at funerals – from tea, coffee and home-made cakes to finger buffets or hot fork buffets; we are totally flexible. Please contact us, preferably by phone to ensure speed and personal attention. Some menu suggestions are below. Please note that prices quoted do not include VAT.
